THE GOIZUETA FOUNDATION SCHOLARS FUND
for INITIAL CERTIFICATION of LATINO EDUCATORS at GEORGIA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

About the Scholarships:
During the winter of 2001-2002, The Goizueta Foundation of Atlanta generously endowed Georgia Southern University’s College of Education with funds to support a number of substantial, renewable, and prestigious scholarships for financially needy Hispanic / Latino who want to become educators.

The Goizueta Foundation Scholars Fund will provide more than just financial support to Georgia Southern students. Each entering Scholar will be paired with a Hispanic / Latino student and/or faculty mentor. They will be provided with a variety of social, personal, and academic support services. They will also have opportunities to tutor and support other Hispanic students in the local schools and at Georgia Southern. Georgia Southern has made a commitment to the success of The Goizueta Foundation Scholars and we will do all we can to help them achieve their goal of becoming teachers.

Criteria for the Scholarships:
- Hispanic / Latino students who reside in the USA legally.
- Preference given to students seeking initial certification through an undergraduate B.S.Ed. or an M.A.T. degree in the College of Education.
- Entering Freshmen, Current GSU, Transfer, and M.A.T. students are eligible.
- Need based.
- Awards can be used for on-campus housing, meal plans, books and tuition and fees.

About Roberto C. Goizueta and The Goizueta Foundation:
Roberto C. Goizueta was Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Chief Executive Officer of The Coca-Cola Company until his death in October 1997. He was a native of Cuba and a graduate of Yale University. He established The Goizueta Foundation in 1992 to provide financial assistance to educational and charitable institutions.

El FONDO de La FUNDACIÓN GOIZUETA para EDUCADORES de orígen LATINO en GEORGIA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Acera de las Becas:
Durante el invierno 2001-2002, The Goizueta Foundation de Atlanta generosamente donó el dinero necesario para que la Escuela de Educación de la Universidad de Georgia Southern implementa una gran número de prestigiosas becas renovables para estudiantes latinos que tengan necesidades económicas y que quieran ser educadores.

El fondo de la Fundación Goizueta proporcionan algo más que el dinero para gastos de la Universidad de Georgia Southern. Cada uno de los becarios Goizueta que entre en este programa será pareado con un estudiante o con un miembro del cuerpo de profesores de orígen latino/hispano. Estas personas podrán proporcionar a los becarios con una variedad de servicios sociales, personales y académicos. Los becarios además tendrán la oportunidad de dar tutorías y ayudar a otros estudiantes de orígen hispano en las escuelas de la localidad y en Georgia Southern. La Universidad de Georgia Southern se ha comprometido a contribuir al éxito de los estudiantes participantes de la Beca Goizueta y hará todo lo necesario para ayudarles a alcanzar su meta de llegar a ser profesores.

Criterios para Recibir las Becas:
• Ser estudiante de orígen hispano/latino resida legalmente en los E.U.A.
• Se dará preferencia a estudiantes cuya especialización (B.S.Ed. o M.A.T.) caiga dentro de la Escuela de Educación.
• También podrán participar aquellos estudiantes nuevos o que se hayan matriculado en o transferido a Georgia Southern University.
• La beca estará basada en la necesidad que tenga el estudiante.
• El dinero que aporte la beca se podrá usar para gastos de vivienda fuera del campus, plan universitario de comidas, libros, y gastos de matrícula.
