Here’s a thought — Instead of asking “What do I want to be when I grow up?” try asking “Who do I want to be?” Because the growing up part? You’re there. Now is the time to decide just how bold you want to be. How great you will become. How monumentally you will impact your life. Your family. Your community. Your world. It’s incredible to think about — and also a little overwhelming, right?

Truth is, anybody who’s ever dared to try something new feels the exact same way. Then, you go to class. You make the team. You join the organization — no — you start your OWN. You find your place as part of a student-centered university that does more than teach.

You take advantage of a vibrant education built on transformative opportunities that will reveal your most exceptional self. It’s time to spread your wings. Welcome to the Eagle Nation.
STATESBORO

Georgia Southern’s largest campus, home to almost 19,000 students, is located in historic Statesboro, a growing college town built around a shop-lined Main Street. It offers the exciting benefits of a large university and the personal feel of a smaller college. Students can choose from a multitude of majors, be involved in hands-on learning within an individualized program, and conduct research with professors. The residential community offers over 300 clubs and organizations for involvement so students can connect with specific groups of friends. The resources on campus are seemingly endless.

ARMSTRONG

Situated on the Atlantic coast in beautiful Savannah, the Armstrong Campus of Georgia Southern University is located just minutes away from the National Historic Landmark District downtown and a short drive from the sunny beaches of Tybee Island. The 268-acre arboretum campus is home to more than 5,600 students and offers an abundance of resources to help students succeed. This close-knit community recognizes each student as the unique person they are and an average class size of 19 means professors will know students by name and truly foster student success.

LIBERTY

Located in Hinesville, the Liberty Campus houses a new, state-of-the-art facility offering a variety of opportunities for local students, especially those affiliated with the military, to take advantage of a nationally-recognized university in their own backyard. This campus, home to 500 students, serves all undergraduate student types, including Dual Enrollment, new freshmen, transfers, and adult learners. Earn an associate’s degree or take classes before transitioning to the Statesboro or Armstrong Campus.

GET INVOLVED

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS
The Office of Student Activities has over 350+ registered student organizations on all campuses. If you can’t find an organization that you want to join, you can always start a new one! Being a member of a student organization allows you to meet new people with the same interests, gain invaluable leadership experiences, teach others about your passions, and have fun! Organizations range from fraternities and sororities, major programs, art, gaming, religion, sports, dance, and everything in between. View all organizations at GeorgiaSouthern.edu/studentorgs.

LEADERSHIP & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
The Office of Leadership and Community Engagement utilizes an integrated theoretical approach to learning, service, and leadership that empowers students to become active, global citizens who lead positive change. The office is dedicated to helping students develop both in and out of the classroom through leadership, community engagement, and service-learning. Learn more at GeorgiaSouthern.edu/leadserve.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION
The Student Government Association serves as advocates to the student body and acts as liaisons between them, the administration, faculty, and staff. They strive to ensure responsive, inclusive, participatory, and representative decision-making at all levels to uphold effective, accountable, and transparent leadership which will reflect the best interests of the students we serve. Learn more at GeorgiaSouthern.edu/sga.

CAMPUS RECREATION & INTRAMURALS
CRI’s purpose is to inspire self-discovery through sport, fitness, wellness, and adventure. CRI is divided into nine separate recreational programs: Aquatics, Club Sports, Fitness, Golf, Informal Recreation, Intramural Sports, Shooting Sports Education Center, and Southern Adventures and University Wellness. Through programs and facilities, CRI promotes and develops healthy lifestyle choices. Learn more at GeorgiaSouthern.edu/recreation.

UNIVERSITY PROGRAMMING BOARD
The UPB enhances campus life by providing safe, inclusive, and diverse events for the student body, creating a TRUE BLUE experience. Events include concerts, comedian shows, homecoming, pageants, movies, and much more! Membership provides great experiences related to program planning, event management, and leadership. Members of UPB gain real-world experiences that help prepare them for their future careers. Consider joining UPB to develop your leadership skills, make new friends, and help build a stronger community at Georgia Southern University! Learn more at GeorgiaSouthern.edu/upb.
SCHOLARS AT SOUTHERN

ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS
The Office of Admissions awards scholarships to new students on behalf of the University. Interview opportunities are provided for students who qualify. Meeting minimum requirements does not guarantee an award.

For more information, contact us at scholarships@georgiasouthern.edu or visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu/admissionsscholarships.

UNIVERSITY HONORS PROGRAM
The University Honors Program provides an enhanced educational environment for bright and motivated students who seek a distinctive and challenging undergraduate experience. Students in the University Honors Program on both the Armstrong and Statesboro campuses engage in a variety of experiences that facilitate the education of the whole person. At the core of the experience is an intensive research project culminating in the honors thesis. The program also emphasizes development outside the classroom through service-learning, leadership, and co-curricular events. These kinds of learning opportunities help ideas come to life and make for a more rewarding and meaningful undergraduate education.

For more information, contact us at honors@georgiasouthern.edu or visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu/honors.

YOUR FUTURE IS WITHIN REACH.

DAILY CAMPUS VISITS
Daily campus visits are offered Monday through Friday on both the Armstrong and Statesboro Campuses. Your visit includes an informative presentation by an admissions representative to discuss admission requirements, housing, and more, along with a walking tour of campus led by a Southern Ambassador. Visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu/visit to register.

ON-CAMPUS EVENTS
On-campus events are offered throughout the fall and spring semesters to allow you to experience all that Georgia Southern can offer. Opportunities include meeting with faculty to learn about academic programs; interacting with student services staff such as admissions, financial aid, and housing; and touring campus and residence halls. Visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu/visit to learn more and register.

OFF-CAMPUS EVENTS
Off-campus events are held in various locations to provide students convenient, in-person opportunities to learn more about Georgia Southern University prior to visiting campus. Attending one of these events is a great first step in the college search process. To look for an event in your area, visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu/offcampusevents.

VIRTUAL EXPERIENCE
Tour the Armstrong and Statesboro Campuses and learn about the culture of Georgia Southern from the convenience of your own home through online virtual experiences. This is an informative way to see both campuses before planning your trip to the Eagle Nation. Visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu/virtualcampus at any time to begin your tour.
UNIVERSITY HOUSING

University Housing is dedicated to providing an environment where each student is both comfortable and engaged. Living on campus is an important piece of becoming part of the Georgia Southern community, so take advantage of the experience. Research shows that students who live on campus their first year of college are more successful and that the experience of living on campus leads to higher graduation rates in a shorter period of time, higher GPA, and better prepares students for life after graduation.

FIRST-YEAR LIVE ON REQUIREMENT
All first-year students are required to live in on-campus housing. Additionally, 65% of our students enjoy living on campus so much that they choose to live on campus again. Learn more about the First-Year Live On Requirement (FYLOR) at GeorgiaSouthern.edu/housing/fylor.

RESIDENTIAL SERVICES
Your room rent includes all utilities including Wi-Fi, cable, free laundry, and activities planned by the staff in the building. University Housing and facilities staff are available to students 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

RESIDENCE HALLS
University Housing maintains four residence halls on the Armstrong Campus with one dedicated to first-year students; Windward Commons, a suite-style hall with three floor plan options.

On the Statesboro Campus, there are eight residence halls and first-year students are able to live in seven of them. Both suite-style and apartment-style halls are available across campus to accommodate a variety of preferences.

RESIDENTIAL LEARNING COMMUNITIES
University Housing offers students the opportunity to shape their living experience by joining a Living-Learning Community (LLCs) such as Southern Leaders or Innovation; or a Theme Community (TCs) such as Geektopia. RLCs are composed of students who live together in a residence hall and participate in a common academic or university program together. Some of these communities have required common courses, a sponsoring college or department that plans specialty programs, and student participation requirements. TCs are for students who have a common interest or identity and who want to live with each other. This common interest serves as the central focus of the community and its programming.

For more information or questions about housing, visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu/housing or contact University Housing at 912.478.5406 or housing@georgiasouthern.edu.
The Office of Financial Aid is committed to helping students and families find ways to bridge the gap between resources and educational expenses. It seeks to assure that any qualified student who desires to pursue and complete an education at Georgia Southern can obtain appropriate resources to do so. The highly trained financial aid counselors can help students through the process from pre-admission to graduation.

TYPES OF AID
Georgia Southern offers many options in each category below. Programs are federally, state, and privately funded and may be based on financial need, merit, or a combination of both. Some types of aid are also non-need based and designed to assist with the Expected Family Contribution.

Grants: Do not require repayment and are based on need.

Loans: Unlike grants, loans must be repaid with interest after the student is no longer enrolled.

Scholarships: Gift aid that does not require repayment and is usually based on a student’s academic achievement.

Work Study: Eligible students work on campus in various departments.

APPLYING FOR FINANCIAL AID
Step 1: To be reviewed for federal and state student aid, complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at fafsa.ed.gov between October 1 and February 1. Remember to include Georgia Southern’s school code - 001572 - on your application.

Step 2: Review your Student Aid Report (SAR), available approximately one week after completing your FAFSA.

Step 3: If you listed Georgia Southern on your FAFSA, within three to five weeks after you receive a correct SAR, the Office of Financial Aid will email you an award notification or a request for additional documents.

For more information or questions about Financial Aid, visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu/finaid or contact the Office of Financial Aid at 912.478.5413 or finaid@georgiasouthern.edu.
