Join faculty and staff at the College of Education to explore the different programs we have to offer. Students may get all of their questions asked regarding a degree in education, certification, program requirements, information about field experiences, and much more! We look forward to seeing all of our future Eagle Educators.
Breakout Session Descriptions

Campus Recreation and Intramurals (CRI) | This session will highlight the various opportunities available at the Statesboro and Armstrong campuses, including intramural sports, fitness programs, our outdoor adventure trips and our recreation facilities. Fun Fact: Students who participate in recreation activities 20 or more times a year have a higher overall GPA and graduation rate. So get involved, come hang out with us and make your parents proud!

Career & Professional Development | This session will help students and parents think beyond their college experience to life after graduation. The Office of Career & Professional Development can help a student during their time at Georgia Southern University by offering assistance in major/career explorations, locating experiential learning opportunities, and creating a four-year career plan. For more information, contact careersv@georgiasouthern.edu.

Dual Enrollment | This session is for students wanting to dual enroll full-time or part-time in college while still in high school. Learn how to get started with this program that allows you to get a head start on your college career at a fraction of the cost. For more information, contact Devon Hodges at dhodges@georgiasouthern.edu.

Financial Aid | This session will help prepare you for the Financial Aid process. Stop by to learn more about HOPE, FAFSA, loans, and other aid opportunities. For more information, contact a Financial Aid Counselor at finaid@georgiasouthern.edu.

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) 101 | This session will cover an overview of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Topics will cover FAFSA commonly asked questions, explain how Georgia Southern University uses your FAFSA results to determine your financial aid eligibility, and what to do if you are randomly selected for federal verification. This session is helpful if you have never completed a FAFSA. For more information, contact a Financial Aid Counselor at finaid@georgiasouthern.edu.

Freshman Admissions | Members of our recruitment team will share an informative presentation about the university, including details about what makes both the Statesboro and Armstrong campuses unique. The admissions process for freshmen and next steps for accepted students will be covered. Counselors will also review requirements for our Eagle Success program. For more information, contact your Admissions Counselor at admissions@georgiasouthern.edu.
Breakout Session Descriptions

Georgia Southern en Español | Sesión interactiva donde tu consejero de admisiones contestará a tus preguntas en tu propio idioma. Esta sesión cubre los temas más importantes, explicando los pasos que los estudiantes deben seguir durante el proceso de admisión y su solicitud de ayuda financiera. Para más información contacte escribeme@georgiasouthern.edu.

Leadership & Community Engagement | This session will open the eyes of students to the great opportunities to serve the Georgia Southern community and beyond. Learn about the Office of Leadership and Community Engagement’s programs such as BUILD, Southern Leaders, Alternative Break Trips, and SERVE 912 to see a different avenue of getting involved on campus. For more information, contact leader@georgiasouthern.edu.

Office of Multicultural Affairs | This session encourages students to be a part of the Minority Advisement Program (MAP), an award-winning program designed to assist minority students with their transition to college (students with 30 hours or less can participate) and the Men of Vision and Excellence (MOVE). For more information, contact oma@georgiasouthern.edu.

Out-of-State Students | This session is designed for incoming freshmen coming from outside the state of Georgia. During this session, you will meet some of your admissions team, review documents needed for admission, and discuss scholarships specifically for out-of-state students. For more information, contact admissions@georgiasouthern.edu.

Sorority and Fraternity Life | This session will introduce students to Greek Life within the Georgia Southern community. Students learn about each council across both campuses, as well as the opportunities for leadership, scholarship, and philanthropy within Fraternity and Sorority Life. For more information, contact greeks@georgiasouthern.edu

Spirit & Traditions | This session will cover all of the traditions and programs that make Georgia Southern University a unique and exciting place! Hear about fun events, learn the fight song, and find out about ways to get involved with the University Programming Board. For more information, contact upb@georgiasouthern.edu.
Breakout Session Descriptions

Transfer Students | This session is designed with the transfer student in mind. This program reviews transfer requirements with an open discussion at the end. For more information, contact transfers@georgiasouthern.edu.

University Honors Program | This session is for students interested in seeking more challenging academic experiences. The Honors Program is designed to offer research, service-learning, study abroad, and other experiential learning opportunities. For more information, contact the director, Dr. Steven Engel, at sengel@georgiasouthern.edu.

University Housing | This session showcases our on-campus residence halls, the benefits of the residential experience, our first-year residency requirement, and housing options for our transfer students. Stop by and find out all the necessary information for living on campus! For more information, contact housing@georgiasouthern.edu, or use the online help button at GeorgiaSouthern.edu/housing.

Afternoon Activities

Explore Statesboro | Drive down The Blue Mile, a historic corridor that connects Georgia Southern and downtown Statesboro. Explore Main Street in downtown Statesboro including the farmers market on Saturdays.
